From the staff

Hey Guys,

By "Coloring Outside the Lines" we don't mean in a coloring book. We are talking about our lives. We wanna show how every day our friends, teachers, and coaches push us beyond our "lines". As students and athletes we're driven to do our best.

We wanted to make this yearbook different, ya know? Wanted to throw out something cool and fresh... well, this is what we came up with. We've had a great year with you guys. Hope you enjoy the yearbook!

Later,

Senior Poem

We are class of 2010, though the good and the bad we've always stuck together. Our class is a mixed batch of personalities and interests and sometimes this even causes us to fight, but it's never for long and we usually make up by later that night. We have had so many good memories forever lasting, so without delay, here's our class poem to commemorate our passing.

Ty is always playing the guitar and always looking fly. His defense is rocking and he's all around a great guy!

Amy is friendly; she always asks how you are. If you need someone to talk to, she's never very far.

Gus works hard, he's never ever late. He voices his opinion & loves to debate.

Kelsi is often found dirt biking, and when it comes to Halle & Brett Favre she definitely liking.

Taylor watches the Lakers every time they're on. His snowmobiling sessions always last long.

Kellrhema's earrings are crazy like her and in the hallways with Sarah she causes quite a stir.

Nolan farms and he is very tall, and he sure can play great basketball!

Sarah trips over her own two feet and when she wants, she can be sweet.

Kyle has a really sexy beard and when it comes to brains, he should be feared!

Kasie loves to read and to draw as for being a friend, she has no flaw!

Josh enjoys driving around town and when it comes to football & charm, he's the best around!

Lindsay has wrecked many a car, but if it's for bacon she will travel very far!

Michael is a huge Metallica fan, it can even be said that they're his favorite band!

Allyson is very, very smart and we all know that she's a cowgirl at heart.

Justin is a rodeo kind of guy, he'll do just about anything, and he is definitely not shy!

Kelsey talks a lot and is sometimes loud; she loves playing sports and is very proud!

Zach is a huge fan of the Jayhawks and in English he always shows off his black socks.

Deszirae is usually very quiet and all, but when it comes to P.E. she's a beast at dodge ball.

Trent is a fan of the Vikings & the Twins, mention their names and you'll see a huge grin!

Kayla is nice and she is always fair, she'll be attending school to learn how to style hair.

Marcie is quite popular, everyone knows her name, winning medals at Special Olympics has brought her fame.

Cassie is always sweet and kind and she always starts her sentences with "Oh, never mind."

We'll miss this place; it's been like our second home. We'll miss the activities and the people we've grown to know. So, goodbye, it's been great, we'll see you all again. We've finally graduated. Class of 2010!!
